Unique moments
Yes, life is in the little things. In those fleeting, unique and unrepeatable moments. They happen right there, at home, at work, in a hotel or in a restaurant; in all those settings where you create your personal collage of little stories. Enjoying each and every one of those scenes, on your terms, is what authentic “intense living” is all about. At RS Barcelona it gives us a real buzz to create products that accompany you in your everyday experiences, that form part of those moments which may fly by but which stay with you forever.
